LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., October 23, 1876: 10:30 a. m.—In the Middle States, falling barometer, nearly stationary temperature, threatening and rainy weather, followed to-night by rising barometer and winds shifting to westerly.

STUCK BY A TRAIN.—On Saturday evening last two travelling pedlars named William A. Hughes, of Philadelphia, and Thomas J. Dawson, of New Orleans, were struck by the north-bound freight train on the Midland road when about five miles this side of Manassas. It is said that the men had been peddling jewelry at the Leesburg fair and started for Lynchburg to visit the fair at that place. They shipped most of their goods by rail and were walking along the railroad with small packs, intending to take the train at Manassas. Becoming tired, they sat down beside the track, and it is supposed fell asleep and did not hear the train coming. There is a curve near the place where they sat down, and the engineer could not see them until nearly upon them, and it was impossible to stop. The two men were struck and knocked senseless, Hughes having part of his right ear torn off and receiving two severe cuts on the head, and Dawson escaping with a badly sprained wrist and some severe bruises about the head and body. The train was stopped as soon as possible, and the men taken on board and brought to this city where they are being cared for at the infirmary. Their injuries are not considered serious. Dawson says that he is a showman by profession and was a member of Hayes' Brigade during the war.

PRINCESS STREET TRUNK.—The new trunk or sewer, intended to carry off the water from Pitt and Princess streets, has been completed and seems to be a very substantial piece of work. The mouth of the sewer, opening towards the south, on Pitt street, is spread out to the right and left, so as to take in all of the water. The trunk is built of heavy lumber and is thoroughly tarred within. Princess street will be filled up several inches so as to cover the top of the trunk and prevent the boards being torn up and used for wood by the residents of the locality. It is believed that the floods of water which formerly swept down over the bed of the street during heavy rains, doing much damage will now be carried off without trouble, by the new trunk.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—Alfonso Arrington and Sonny Ward, two well known characters from this city, had a quarrel in Washington Saturday. Arrington says that Ward threatened to kill him some time since, and on their meeting on the avenue, on Saturday, Arrington drew a pistol and fired two shots at Ward, both of which passed through his coat, but it is supposed, did no injury, as he ran off at once and has not been seen since by the police. Arrington was arrested and sent to the station house. The report circulated here to-day that Ward had been badly wounded, and had since died from the effects thereof, is not credited.

FLAG HALYARDS CUT.—Considerable commotion and excitement was created among the colored people last night and this morning by the discovery that the halyards of the Hayes and Wheeler flag pole, at the corner of Duke and Washington streets, had been cut during the night. The flag had, of course, run down and was found near the pole. Officer Muller reported at the Mayor's office that he saw two negro boys playing on the stand and handling the halyards early last night, and that he drove them away. It is supposed that they returned and either cut the halyards or cast them loose.

CHURCHES YESTERDAY.—There were large congregations at the different churches yesterday, both morning and night. Rev. W. C. Webb, preached in the Union Presbyterian Church in the morning, and Rev. John Ryan, at night, the latter gentleman preached in the morning in the M. E. Church. Rev. Dr. Bledsoe preached in the Second Presbyterian Church both morning and night, and Rev. W. H. Phipps in the Methodist Protestant Church. The other pulpits were occupied by the regular clergy.

CONSERVATIVE BARBECUE AT WARRENTON. There will be a grand mass meeting of the conservatives of Fauquier county, at Warrenton, on Friday, the 27th inst. There will be at the same time a free barbecue, to which the public generally are invited. The following speakers are expected to be present, viz: B. Johnson Barbour, esq., Major John W. Daniels, Gen. James G. Field, Gov. Gilbert C. Walker and others. The Warrenton conservatives hope Alexandria will send up a delegation.

RADICALS AT LANGLEY.—The radicals held another meeting at Langley on Saturday night, under the auspices of Mr. J. A. Larman, of Washington.

Speeches were made by C. Colue, N. M. Cole, Samuel Hunter, Mr. McCully and Mr. Connor, all of whom are from the District. Mr. Larman declined to make a speech, but promised to make one before the end of the canvass, he said, that would just wipe out democracy.

COUNTY COURT.—Judge James Sangster presiding.—The grand jury presented an indictment against James Church for breaking and entering, a true bill; against Frederick French, for grand larceny, a true bill; against Henry Sampson, carrying concealed weapons, not a true bill; against Samuel Kerford, grand larceny, a true bill. Court adjourned till Wednesday at 11 o'clock.

SUPERINTENDENT OF POLICE.—The Mayor, this morning, suspended Mr. W. B. Brown, as Superintendent of Police, for thirty days, on the complaint of incompetency preferred against him by the Committee on Streets. Mr. Wm. Barile has been appointed by the Mayor, to act during Mr. Brown's suspension, and took charge this morning.

ILL.—The many friends of Mrs. Ella Robinson will learn with regret that she is lying at the point of death, at her home in Richmond, with no hope of her recovery. Mrs. Robinson is well known in this city, where she resided for two years. She is an estimable, noble woman, and her critical condition will invoke the sympathy of all who know her.

SPORTSMEN FINED.—Five sportsmen from Washington were picked up near Dagerfield's Island, in the county, yesterday, and carried before a negro Justice, who fined them all and confiscated their guns and ammunition. The negro constables who arrested them had made out into the water to secure their prisoners, who were in a boat.

SYNOD OF VIRGINIA.—At the meeting of the Synod of Virginia, in Norfolk, on Saturday, it was resolved, on motion of Rev. Dr. Bullock, to hold the next session of the Synod at the Union Presbyterian Church, in this city, on the Tuesday before the second Sunday in November, 1877, at 7.30 p. m.

DETAINED.—The passenger train bound north on the Virginia Midland road yesterday morning, was detained by an accident on the C. & O. Railroad, and did not arrive in this city until four o'clock in the evening.

I found Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to be a most effectual remedy, and feel sure that the most stubborn cough and cold will yield to its healing influence.—Frank S. Price, New Orleans, August 6, 1876.

The Turkish War.

LONDON, October 23.—The steady advance to consols and other international stocks which fell during last week's panic indicates the prevailing impression here that war is not imminent, and that a peaceful solution of the eastern question is not impossible.

The Times to-day, in a leading article says there is perhaps danger that unreasonable alarm may be succeeded by unreasonable hopes, but it is evident that we need not despair of seeing the crisis pass away without an outbreak of hostilities between Russia and Turkey.

Heretofore the Times has considered a Russo-Turkish war inevitable. The same change of opinion is noticeable in other quarters. The recent excitement has had the good effect of demonstrating what would be the attitude of the powers in case of an aggravated war by Russia. Had an armistice been accepted it is not unlikely that the Powers would have witnessed a hostile demonstration on the part of Russia with greater danger of its resulting in actual hostilities. It seems probable now that the question may be settled peacefully.

A dispatch to the official Russian telegraphic agencies says the departure of Lord Loftus for British embassy at St. Petersburg for Livadia and General Lavrinski for Constantinople should be interpreted as further proof that Russia and England are endeavoring to arrive at a sound and lasting pacification.

Per contra, a Russian dispatch from Bucharest reports that the battalions of the concentrated Roumanian army has been officially published and that Prince Charles assumes command. Though this looks rather alarming, and will probably be followed by the announcement that it only refers to the usual disciplinary movements, meaning fighting in the Timok and Morava Valleys and on the Drina has been renewed with great stubbornness. Gen. Tchernaieff telegraphs that the Turks were repulsed along the whole line, but the evidence of newspaper correspondents is unambiguous that the Servians were badly whipped and lost 1,500 men in their attempt on Saitsebar and 3,000 about Deligrad.

According to the Standard's special the Turks have taken all the positions to within cannon shot of Djinnis, and very likely will take the latter, whereupon Deligrad, Alexandria, Gen. Tchernaieff's new headquarters at Kacok, and the whole Morava Valley will be in their hands.

This new aspect of affairs is likely to hasten Russian action either for war or peace.

Russian officers, of whom there is said to be fourteen for each Serbian battalion, suffered heavily in the recent fighting.
